

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

BONNE TERRE

Leo Dachwald, of Clayton, is home to spend the summer months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Dachwald.

Miss Lena Boyer, who spent three weeks with her cousin, Miss Sidney Boyer, has returned to her home in Ste. Genevieve.

Herbert and Erma Freeman spent the week-end at Elving with their uncle, Marion Greenwalt and family.

Julius Pratte of Leadwood was a visitor here with friends Thursday.

Wyman Buckner, of St. Louis, was a visitor here Sunday.

Little Bernice Pratte, of Rivermines, is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Pratte, and family.

Misses Geneva and Stella Murphy, of Big River, spent Wednesday here with her sister, Mrs. Henry House, and family.

Mrs. H. E. Thurman visited here with relatives Friday.

Mrs. Fenton Millen and little daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Silver Springs, spent Thursday here with her brother, Vester Voss, and family.

W. M. Moon, of Primrose, was a visitor here Monday.

Marvin O'Sullivan was a visitor in Flat River Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Carrow, of Flat River, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Thurman and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thurman and family.

Mrs. Anna O'Sullivan, of Cairo, Ill., spent the week-end here with relatives.

Rev. Sevcik and Rev. Moser spent Thursday in Arcadia.

Miss Katherine Dempsey, of Flat River, spent Sunday here with friends.

Mr. Knorpp, of DeSoto, spent Friday and Saturday here with Mr. Spradling and family.

E. Mason, of Leadwood, spent Sunday here with friends.

Anderson McCoy, of Desloge, spent Sunday here with friends.

Shelton Horn spent Wednesday in Leadwood on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson, of Rivermines, spent Sunday here with home folks.

Thos. Cook spent Tuesday in Desloge with friends.

Henry Radle and son, of Farmington, were business visitors here Tuesday.

Alvin Son, of DeSoto, spent from Saturday to Monday here with his father and sisters.

Jay Brown spent Saturday and Sunday in Bismarck with relatives and friends.

Miss Nellie Hoskings, of St. Louis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoskings, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Melcher and family have returned from their vacation at Columbia, Mo.

Dr. T. A. Son is much improved, and will likely be removed to his home Sunday.

Gus Lawrence has returned from his vacation and is again on duty at the Cash and Carry store.

Miss Helen Brown has accepted a position in the Star Register printing office.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, of Desloge, were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. West, and family.

A number of young folks went on a hiking party to Terre Blue Saturday, taking with them weiners and marshmallows, for their supper. Fred Brennon had the party in charge.

James Son, of Festus, spent Saturday and Sunday here with his father and family.

Wm. Francis, of St. Louis, is spending the week with his father, James Francis, and family.

Mrs. Martin Donnelly and little daughter spent Saturday and Sunday with her sisters, Mrs. John Boehle, and family, and Mrs. Sophia Van Allen.

Mr. Rhodi, of Flat River, was a visitor here Monday.

Mrs. Richard Doyle spent the week in St. Louis. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Marie, who is attending St. Elizabeth Institute, and will spend the summer in this city.

Eugene Williams, of Leadwood, spent Monday and Tuesday here on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lawrence and two daughters, of Flat River, spent Sunday here with friends.

Joseph Bouchard was a visitor in Leadwood Friday.

Mrs. Robert Pratte, of Rivermines, spent Friday and Saturday here with her sister.

Matilda and Mamie Cunningham, of near DeSoto, spent Sunday here with Arthur AuBuchon and family.

Miss Mary Mostiller was a business visitor in St. Louis Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Dachwald spent Sunday and Monday in St. Louis attending the graduating exercises of the Chaminade College at Clayton, their son being one of the graduates.

Stella Ball, of Flat River, spent Sunday with her brother, Harry Lesser, and family.

Mrs. Coleman spent Thursday and Friday in Festus and Herculaneum.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Allen, Christine Weber, Thomas Allen, Jr., and little Helen Shadwick spent Monday in Bismarck with friends.

Maud Straughn spent Saturday evening and Sunday in Flat River with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Zimmerman, and husband.

Leo Jullo, of Bismarck, spent Saturday and Sunday here with friends.

Mrs. Lloyd Ravid arrived here Sunday from Texas, where she will spend several weeks with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Courtney, and family.

Miss Lucille Hatcher has returned home from an extended visit in Festus.

Mrs. Lucy Kane and husband are visiting in Irondale with home folks and friends.

Mrs. Bessie Pratte was called to St. Louis last week to be at the bedside of her mother, who is very ill.

Mrs. Ruth Johnson and little daughter, Rita Isabelle, of Rivermines, spent Friday with her father and sister, Cyprian Boyer and Miss Sidney.

Mrs. Robt. Womack and family, of St. Francois, spent Saturday and Sunday with her father, Dr. Son, and family.

Mrs. M. V. Johnson and daughter, Elizabeth, spent Monday and Tuesday in St. Louis with friends.

Mrs. Jack Creeley spent Sunday in St. Louis and was accompanied home by her daughter, Miss Leola, who will spend a month here.

Sterling Burton, of Leadwood, visited here Thursday and Friday.

Frank Marchand spent Monday in Leadwood on business.

Mrs. Walter Patton and little daughter were visitors in St. Louis Wednesday.

John O'Sullivan and Miss Myrtle Waller were married Wednesday in Desloge. Only immediate relatives and a few friends of the young couple were present.

Mrs. Arthur Moon and children, of Fort Madison, Iowa, came here Sunday to visit her father, Dr. T. A. Son, and family.

Herman Carter, of Melzo, was a visitor here Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Hoelzel and son, of Melzo, were here Saturday.

A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Cloud on Wednesday.

Edward Marlow, of Bismarck, visited his sister, Mrs. John Fenton, this week.

Miss Emily Brokenshire is spending the week with friends in St. Louis.

Mrs. Monroe Peterson and daughter, Helen, of French Village, spent Tuesday here with her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Pratte, and family.

Raymond Bryant, of DeSoto, spent Friday and Saturday here with friends.

Mrs. Wm. Whiteknight and little daughter, Dorothy, of Hazel Run, were visitors at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emily Pratte, and family.

Herbert Reynolds, of DeSoto, spent Saturday and Sunday here with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Shaner, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilburn spent Sunday on an outing trip to Iron Mountain.

Wm. Fowler, of French Village, was a visitor here Wednesday.

Frank Cole and John David were visitors here Tuesday.

Reva Counts visited here Friday and Saturday with friends.

Mrs. Laura House spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Augustine Murphy, and family.

Shelton Counts spent Monday and Tuesday in Desloge and Flat River.

Miss Anna Peterson spent Saturday here with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Pratte, and family.

Bernard and Alphonso AuBuchon, of French Village, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Evelyn Mayberry is spending the week in Farmington with her grandmother and aunt.

News of the marriage of Leo LaBruyere, formerly of this place but now of St. Louis, to Miss Adrian Lockwood, was quite a surprise to his friends here.

Miss Helen Moran is spending the week-end in Farmington with her friend, Lucille Simpson.

Bernard AuBuchon spent Saturday and Sunday in Flat River with friends.

Paul Moran left last week for a month's visit in Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Tenholder and family have returned from a visit in Ofallon, Mo.

Walter Palmer, of Doe Run, was a visitor here Monday with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gidley, of near Hazel Run, spent Sunday here with relatives.

Wm. Nelson was in Leadwood Tuesday and Wednesday.

Barton Wilkinson was a guest in Desloge and Flat River Sunday.

Miss Beatrice David was a visitor here Saturday.

Wm. Patt and F. E. Counts were visitors here Friday.

Mrs. Mart Moore spent Friday in Flat River.

BISMARCK

J. C. Hunter and sons, Paul and Jesse, were in Doe Run Wednesday afternoon on business.

The Whitney family, who have been residing west of town, departed for California Thursday in an outfit that resembled an emigrant wagon in olden times.

R. C. Love was taken to a sanitarium at Edindale, Mo., for his health. Mr. Love has been critically ill for the past few weeks, but had improved some at the time he left. His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. Thomasson, of Flat River, spent Thursday at the home of Dr. F. W. Gale and family of this city.

Miss Mamie Sisk went to St. Louis Saturday afternoon for a few days visit at the home of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lucy motored to Midco Friday for a few days visit. Mr. Lucy attended to business matters while there.

Frank Wallen and Frank DeGuire were St. Louis business visitors on Friday. They made the trip on the Milling Company's truck.

John Fitzpatrick was an Irondale visitor the past week.

Miss Estelle Cooley, of Farmington, was home the week-end.

The Bismarck Motor Co. received a carload of Ford's Friday.

D. M. Ringer, road overseer for this district, is at present repairing the Bismarck-Elvins road.

Miss Cecil Distil, of this city, was one of the graduates of Arcadia college this week.

Edwin Wood spent the past week visiting friends and relatives in Reynolds county.

John Reagan and wife and Mrs. J. Reagan were Flat River visitors on Tuesday.

Jeff Hughes and family, of Flat River, visited friends and relatives here on Tuesday.

Chas. Francisco, County Highway Engineer, was in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Johnson and

Mrs. Fred Twomey were Flat River visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Carter departed Tuesday morning for an extended auto trip for the benefit of Mr. Carter's health.

T. C. Zupf and son, John, were Flat River visitors Tuesday.

F. E. Heath was in Farmington on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McFarland, of St. Louis, attended the funeral of Miss Eaton on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyer, of Leadwood, were visitors here Tuesday.

Henry Snapp, of Leadwood, attended the funeral of Miss Eaton on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Lavery, of Iron Mountain, were shopping here Friday.

George and J. Sykes, of Iron Mountain, were visitors here Friday.

Miss Helen Neely, of Farmington, was home the week-end.

Wm. Hartenbeck, of Iron Mountain, was a visitor here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rariden, of Farmington, were business visitors here on Saturday.

Chas. Dawson, of Iron Mountain, was a visitor here Saturday afternoon.

Strother McGinnis, of St. Louis, came down the latter part of the week for a visit with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Beard and Chester Beard and Miss Ruth Creaggar motored to Doe Run Saturday afternoon.

Cy Sherrill, of Flat River, was a visitor here Saturday.

Robt. Hodkins, of Caledonia, was a visitor at the home of friends and relatives here on Saturday afternoon.

The Irondale baseball team was the attraction on the local diamond and were given a trimming at the rate of six to three, last Sunday. Both sides were retired in order in the first inning. Bismarck scored one run in the second on errors. Irondale scored three runs in the fourth inning. From then on to the seventh inning it looked as though Irondale would pull through the battle victorious, but it was the seventh inning that proved to be the fatal inning for the Washington county boys, when Bismarck pounded their pitcher for three hits.

Frank Grider made a home run hit in the eighth. Both sides were then blanked in the final innings of the game.

Miss Myrtle Matkin, daughter of G. C. Matkin, of this city, and Raymond Fite, of Eldorado, Kans., were united in marriage at the Baptist church here last Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Wm. England performed the ceremony. They left that evening for Eldorado, Kans., where they will make their future home. The good wishes of the Bismarck people go with them.

The body of Jack Stewart, an over-seas veteran, who was killed in action, is expected to arrive home any time.

J. E. Hunter, Roy Eidson and Geo. Keathley were Irondale visitors on Friday.

Mr. Meador, of Flat River, was a visitor in our town last Saturday.

Roll Sisk spent Friday and Saturday in St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gault were Iron Mountain visitors the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Chas. Distil and daughter, Miss Cecil, were guests of friends in Arcadia Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Downs, of Flat River, was a Sunday visitor here.

Mr. Short and family were Pilot Knob visitors Sunday.

Mrs. P. G. Gilliam, George Gilliam and Mrs. Woodside, of Irondale, were visitors at the home of G. J. Goetz Sunday afternoon.

Tom Boatright and Jas. Cox, of Iron Mountain, were visitors here on Sunday.

A baby girl was born to the wife of Carter Blanton on Monday.

Wheat cutting has been in full swing the past two weeks.

After suffering for an extended time with cancer of the stomach, Miss Mary Eaton passed to the great beyond last Monday afternoon, at the age of 65 years. Funeral services were conducted at the home of Rev. Del Longreear and the body was laid to rest in the Odd Fellows cemetery. We extend sympathy to the bereaved.

Wm. Keathley was in St. Louis the fore part of the week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bradley, of Hickory Grove, attended the funeral of Miss Mary Eaton on Tuesday.

Mrs. Sloan and Mrs. Julius Schieling were Hogan visitors the week-end.

Paul Boatright was an Iron Mountain visitor the middle of the week.

Virginia White, of Fredericktown, was a visitor at the home of Dr. F. W. Gale and family the past week.

John Berthold, of St. Louis, was a visitor with home folks south of town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Beard returned to their home at Kankakee, Ill., Monday, after a week's visit with his parents. Mr. Beard is conducting a business college at that place.

Mildred Bond spent the past week visiting friends and relatives in Bellview.

KNOB LICK

Oat harvesting is the order of the day in this vicinity.

It is reported that Dick Webb is quite ill.

John Littrel, of Flat River, spent Saturday at this place.

Mrs. J. S. Jarnagin and son, Charles, of St. Louis, arrived here Friday to visit relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Webb and children, Hazel, Ward and Carl, spent Sunday with the former's brother, Dick Webb, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGinnis departed for Flat River Saturday, where they expect to make their future home.

James Low, of Avon, attended the memorial here Sunday. He was accompanied home by his mother-in-law, Mrs. J. S. Jarnagin, of St. Louis.

Mrs. Patt Acuff and children departed Thursday for a two weeks visit with relatives in Ste. Genevieve.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wallace son, James, of DeLassus, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Imman of Desloge, Mrs. Amanda Grady, Miss Nellie Grady and Jasper Grady and daughter of Bonne Terre, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grady and daughter ter of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Grady and children of Flat River, Mrs. R. L. Hood and daughters of St. Francois, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. White of Libertyville, and Sidney Woods of Monroe, La., were present.

On last Sunday, June 19th, the reunion of the Snyder family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rodgers in Knob Lick. All the Snyder family was present, except one sister, Mrs. Laura Kennedy of Chicago.

At the noon hour a sumptuous dinner was served on the lawn, to which all did ample justice, and a genuine good time was enjoyed by all. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Snyder and grandson, Snyder McKinney, of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ward and son, of Desloge, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Jones and sons, of Desloge, Mr. C. A. Rodgers, of Blytheville, Ark., Mrs. Myrtle Granger and daughter of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rodgers and son of Avon, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Murphy and sons of Knob Lick, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Murphy and children and Miss Dulie Snyder of Knob Lick, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beard of Knob Lick, Milton Arnold of St. Louis, L. B. Johnson of Womack, M. L. Presnell of Libertyville, Rev. Yount of Marquand and Fred Acuff of Knob Lick.

ILBERTVILLE

C. F. Detring and son, Donald, have been on the sick list this week.

Lester and Hubert Presnell attended the ice cream festival at Womack last Saturday night.

Master Wayman Crow spent last week in Farmington with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crow.

Harry Williams, of Farmington, spent last week here at the home of his uncle, J. E. Burns, helping harvest the wheat.

Mrs. Roberta Brington and son spent last week here with the former's grandmother, "Aunt" Sophia Shaw.

Mrs. A. H. King spent one day last week at the home of her brother, Andrew Gordon, on Route 3.

Mrs. W. L. Tomlinson and sons, Loren Jr., and Benson, of Fornell, Mo., and Mrs. J. C. Jenkins and son, Lowell, of Bartlesville, Okla., are here for a few days visit with home folks.

Elder and Mrs. R. L. Allen spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ballard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crow, of Farmington, spent Saturday night and Sunday here with their son, H. W. Crow, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tillman spent last Sunday at Coffman with the latter's sister, Mrs. Chas. Coffman, and family.

Kennet Burns is rebuilding his blacksmith shop which burned recently. Mrs. Moody, of Flat River, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Burns, and family.

Messrs. Hines and Hawthorne, of Womack, were business visitors in this community Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Downs, of Fredericktown, visited the family of Kennet Burns last Tuesday.

Lloyd Ferguson and John Perkins, of Farmington, were in this community one day this week.

Sunday school at the Christian church next Sunday morning at 9:30. This will give those present time to get through and attend the Children's Day program and basket dinner at the M. E. Church.

NEWS FROM LEADWOOD.

Lester Mason had the misfortune of getting his automobile burned up near Desloge last Wednesday night while out driving.

Nathan Levy returned from St. Louis last Friday driving a real automobile. He has bought himself a Jordan 6.

Prof. Bert Luma, president of Marvin College, at Fredericktown, passed through here Saturday morning on his way to Irondale. He secured two pupils for the college while he was here.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Towl and son, B. F., Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. C. Market and son, George, spent the week-end out on the McMullin camp on Big river, near Irondale, fishing.

B. H. Bass and J. E. Murray were transacting business at the county seat Saturday morning. Mr. Bass sold his Racer, which has been kicking up so much dust and noise of late here in Leadwood. He says if he can find another that will get over the ground as fast as the one that he sold, and at the same time is noiseless, he will buy it.

Prof. C. S. Reaves and family, of Webster Grove, is here visiting his brother, Prof. J. W. Reaves and family.

Miss Marion McKenzie, who is attending the Teachers' Training School at Cape Girardeau, spent the week-end here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. H. McKenzie.

Emory Taylor, who has been working in St. Louis, is at home here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor.

Rev. J. N. Sittin, of Irondale, was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Bert Stapp, here Saturday night.

Lee Snead, who has been working in St. Louis for the past month, has returned to make his future home.

The Leadwood Base Ball Team opened the season here last Sunday by defeating the Farmington, by the score of 4 to 2. It was a good game from start to finish, and was anybody's game till the last man was out in the 9th inning. Murrell and Prather were the battery for Leadwood, and the pitching of Murrell was a feature of the game, having struck out 15 of the Farmington players.

Dr. Dailey Appleberry and wife drove through to St. Louis Sunday afternoon in his car, returning home Tuesday.

L. A. Gideon, who holds a good position in St. Louis, was visiting friends here the first of the week.

H. K. Level, who is working in St. Louis, spent the week-end here with his family.

Rev. Stenson, supt. of the Orphans Home at Farmington, was here last Thursday on business in connection with the Orphans Home.

Mrs. Anna Fowler, of Rolla, was visiting friends here the latter part of last week.

Mrs. L. D. Nichol, of Hayte, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Norwine, of Flat River,